

The Lord says: Is that the sort of fast that pleases me: hanging your head like a bending reed? Is not the fast that pleases me rather to break unjust fetters, to set the oppressed free and to share your food with the hungry? (Isaiah 58:5-12)