Paul writes: We should not try to please ourselves, but consider what is good for our neighbours and so build up community. (Romans 15:1-7,13)